M. SEE A PLAY WITH ALISON

Alison Miller, minister@muuf.org

Join your chauffeurs Rev. Alison and David for a trip to the city to see the world premiere production of Anna Ziegler's play Boy at the Ensemble Studio Theatre on 52nd Street. The playwright (who happens to be Alison's sister-in-law) is a hot commodity right now, with her play "Photograph 51" starring Nicole Kidman currently on the London West End Stage. New York Times theater critic Alexis Soloski says "every play that she writes toys with the audience's sympathies." Boy is inspired by a true story, exploring the tricky terrain of finding love amidst the confusion of sexual identity, and the inextricable bond between a doctor and patient. In the 1960s, a well-intentioned doctor convinces the parents of a male infant to raise their son as a girl after a terrible accident. Two decades later, the repercussions of that choice continue to unfold. A story of the blinding power of love and the complicated mystery of one's perception of self, Boy is a moving play that calls into question how we become who we are."
